Dress Code

Boys: EYFS

Children are expected to wear the correct school uniform as stated on the School Uniform List and to take pride in their appearance. They are required to do so upon arrival, throughout the school day and as they depart the school.

Note that boys should wear grey or black socks with the uniform.

We greatly appreciate your support in this. Please ensure that every item of clothing and equipment, including footwear and games kit, is clearly named and clean.

Children who are attending school functions, fixtures and excursions must wear school uniform unless told otherwise. There will be scheduled non-uniform days on the School Calendar and occasions when children are permitted to wear alternative clothing by agreement with their teacher.

Boys hair should be smart and tidy. Hair length of less than a grade 3 is not permitted. If hair extends beyond the collar, it should be tied back in school coloured accessories (blue, red, black or brown).

Earrings, jewellery and make-up are not permitted in EYFS. Exceptions to this are for performances or special calendar dress-up days.
